

Information for Decisionmakers

The Economic Research Service analyzes developments and trends affecting agriculture and rural America. Performance of the agricultural industry, including the producing, processing, and marketing sectors, is an important area of research. Analysts provide economic information to help you make more knowledgeable decisions.

Economists project prices, supplies, demand, and use of specific crops, dairy, poultry, livestock, and other products. They assess foreign developments and agricultural policies to determine the impacts on U.S. trade.

Use, conservation, and development of natural resources affecting economic growth are a major area of research. Trends in population, employment, and housing, and economic adjustment problems are closely reviewed and reported.

Reports lists all current agency publications and prices. To be placed on its free mailing list, write to:

Suggestions for Submitting Manuscripts for Agricultural Economics Research

Contributors can expedite reviewing and printing of their articles by doing these things:

1. SOURCE. Indicate in a memorandum how the material submitted is related to the economic research program of the U.S. Department of Agriculture and its cooperating agencies. State your own connection with the program.
2. CLEARANCE. Obtain any approval required in your own agency or institution before sending your manuscript to one of the editors of Agricultural Economics Research. Attach a copy of such approval to the manuscript.
3. ORIGINALITY OF MATERIAL. It is our policy to print original material. We consider alternative treatments of material published elsewhere, but such treatments need to differ substantially from the original approach. When submitting your manuscript, identify, if applicable, related material either published or submitted for publication.
4. ABSTRACT. Include an abstract and at least three keywords when you submit your article. The abstract should not exceed 100 words. It should report the major findings of your research.
5. NUMBER OF COPIES. Submit three good copies.
6. TYPING. Double space everything, including abstract, footnotes, and references.
7. FOOTNOTES. Number consecutively throughout the article.
8. REFERENCES. Check all references carefully for accuracy and completeness.
9. CHARTS AND OTHER ARTWORK. Use charts sparingly. Keep design as simple as possible. Submit all artwork in draft rather than in final form, accompanied by neatly prepared pages with essential data for plotting.
